MONTANA STATE EMPLOYEES' CHARITABLE GIVING CAMPAIGN
APPLICATION INFORMATION FOR INDEPENDENT NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

The State Employees' Charitable Giving Campaign (SECGC) welcomes your interest in our 2015 campaign. We are a service to state employees, who are very generous donors to non-profit organizations and to their communities. We welcome and encourage your participation. As a part of the service to employees, we must make sure that applying organizations meet the eligibility requirements of the campaign, and provide the following information to assist applicants. We welcome questions as you consider applying or as you are gathering the information we need. For any questions, contact information is in sections VII and VIII below.

I. General Information. Your organization is invited to apply for the 2015 SECGC. This campaign is the only authorized charitable solicitation of state employees in the workplace. Through the campaign, state employees donate to a wide variety of non-profits using payroll deduction, credit or debit cards, checks or cash. In 2014, state employees donated more than $ 490,000. While there were some non-profits that received no contributions, the largest total of pledges and gifts to a single non-profit was $36,420 and the average individual state employee pledge amount was $273.

The campaign is administered by the Department of Administration with the assistance of Governor-appointed advisory council of volunteer state employees, a Financial Services Coordinator and a Program Coordinator and representatives of federations and independent participants.

II. Eligibility Requirements. To apply for the 2015 SECGC, each non-profit must adhere to the following requirements.

- A. Each non-profit must be, or be a program directly managed by, an organization that has tax exempt status granted by the IRS under 26 USC 501(c)(3) or has such status granted by an act of Congress.
- B. Each non-profit must meet the following criteria. Each non-profit must:
  1. Be in compliance with all federal, state and local laws and ordinances.
  2. Account for its funds in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).
  3. Have a physical MT address. If you were included in campaigns prior to 2015 this is not required you are grandfathered into the campaign.
  4. Have an active Montana telephone number or website listed under the name of the organization.

5. Be directed by an active and responsible governing body whose members have no material conflict of interest and a majority of whom serve without compensation.
6. Conduct publicity and promotional activities based on its actual programs and operations, are truthful and non-deceptive, include all material facts and make no exaggerated or misleading claims.
7. Use the funds contributed by state employees for its purposes described in campaign materials.
8. Have a written policy and procedure of nondiscrimination in regard to race, color, religion, national origin, disability, age marital status or sex for the purpose of service, employment, membership or leadership.
9. Not share or sell names or addresses of state employee donors to anyone.
10. Have a physical Montana address.

III. Application and Agreement. By signing the Application and Agreement, each non-profit agrees to:

- A. Certify that it meets the eligibility requirements in section II above.
- B. Indemnify the state, its officials, agents and employees as required in the Application and Agreement.
- C. The Department of Administration's selection of a Financial Services Coordinator and a Program Coordinator to act on your behalf and to be paid by each non-profit and federation as described in paragraph 5 of the Application and Agreement.

IV. Approval to Participate and Appeals.

- A. The Campaign Advisory Council reviews all applications.
- B. On the request of the Department of Administration and/or recommendations of the council, a non-profit organization must provide documentation to substantiate any of the above items certified by the non-profit.
- C. The council recommends approval or denial to the Department of Administration. Applicants are notified of the outcome by regular or electronic mail.
- D. Applicants may appeal denial in writing within 10 working days to the Department of Administration at the same address used for applications. A decision on the appeal will be made within 10 working days.
- E. Approval for prior campaigns does not guarantee future eligibility.
- F. No organization or program may be listed more than once in the campaign materials. For example, if a program is listed under a Human Resources Development Council, it may not be listed under a United Way.

V. Conduct of the Campaign.

- A. Volunteer state employees conduct the campaign. Direct contact by organizations with employees is regulated to minimize workplace disruption and ensure equal access. Non-profits may post materials on public bulletin boards indicating that state employees may donate through the campaign. Removing other organizations' materials will result in disqualification.
- B. Non-profits may be asked to help with training, campaign promotion or other events.
- C. The campaign produces a single Giving Guide with information about all participating organizations and a single pledge form. Non-profits may not distribute their own fundraising materials in the workplace.

- D. The Campaign Advisory Council sends thank-you letters to donors listing the non-profit organization and amount pledged/donated to that organization.
- E. Employees may indicate on the pledge form whether or not they want contributors notified of their gift.
- F. The campaign will not, without clear permission from the state employee, disclose his or her name, address, designation or any other information related to the campaign.
- G. Have a physical Montana address, or participated in the SECGC prior to 2015.

VI. Financial Information.

- A. The application fee for the 2015 campaign is $40 per non-profit. This fee must be submitted with the application and is not refundable.
- B. State employees may designate contributions to your non-profit. Undesignated contributions, campaign expenses and uncollectible pledges are allocated among all participants based on a percentage share of gross campaign receipts.
- C. The Financial Services Coordinator will make all distributions using direct deposit (electronic fund transfer) to the organization's financial account. The appropriate authorizing forms are a part of and must be submitted with the Application and Agreement.
- D. The Financial Services Coordinator will pay all designated cash contributions by May 1, of the year following the official end of the campaign, less participants' share of projected expenses at that time. If May 1 falls on a weekend, the payment will be made on the prior business day.
- E. The Financial Services Coordinator will distribute all other payroll deduction contributions, less participants' share of projected expenses, no later than May 1, August 1 and November 1. The final quarterly payment will be distributed, less uncollectible and final expenses, within 10 working days following the campaign audit, but no later than April 1. The Financial Services Coordinator will send out a report on final distribution of campaign revenues and expenses.

VII. Department of Administration.

- A. The Department of Administration is the final authority in the interpretation of any rules, policy, contracts, eligibility and any other matters relating to the State Employees' Charitable Giving Campaign.
